HEALTH CARE CENTER PLANS MOVING ALONG

Stephen Rowen, of the Tri-County Health and Planning Agency and Richard Dolven, Headmaster of Gould Academy, were invited guests at the Bethel Health and Service Council meeting Tuesday evening.

Mr. Dolven reaffirmed the Gould Academy commitment of the property for the Health Care Facility and clarified the fact that the use of the infirmary was indeed a temporary residence for a Bethel physician.

Mr. Rowen explained to and discussed with council members the best possible avenues to follow to attain the goal of a Bethel Health Care Center. Decisions were made to use the land behind the I.G.A. for construction of a permanent facility large enough to house a physician, his assistant, and facilities for health care programs. Designs will be such as to allow for future expansion. Final drawings should be presented at the next meeting, as well as definitive information on the availability of outside funds for grant or loan.

COMMENTS FROM THE TOWN MANAGER'S OFFICE

The yield signs at the intersection of Main and Church Streets have been changed back to their original positions. Now Main and Broad Streets yield to Route 5 and Church Streets.

A gate will be erected at the dump. This gate will be locked except during the hours an attendant is present. When the hours become effective, they will be: Tuesday through Friday, 12 noon to 6 p. m. Saturday, 10 a. m. to 6 p. m. Sunday, 10 a. m. to 6 p. m. The area will be closed Mondays. As soon as we can construct the gate and haul gravel to the site the restrictions will become effective.

The above measures are being taken in an effort to forestall having to move to a new location and provide a different method of disposal. Town officials realize the community will have to make adjustments, some of which will be inconvenient, but they can see no other way to control the area.

HISTORICAL SOCIETY RECEIVES GIFTS

The Bethel Historical Society has recently received from Mrs. Clyde Oakes of Augusta, the daughter of longtime Bethel lawyer and Judge, A. E. Herrick, three books: a copy of "A New System of Modern Geography" by Elijah Parish printed in 1814; an edition of "The Lady's Magazine," Vol. XXIX, published in 1798 and a copy of "Histoire de Venise" by Par F. Valentin printed in 1844. The latter contains a note from Miss Annie Frye who gave the book to Mrs. Oakes. Miss Frye was a teacher and for many years was active in the Bethel Library Association.

Mrs. Dean K. Brundage of Reston, Va., a summer resident of the area, has donated several lumbering operations photographs to the Society. These were taken at approximately the turn of the century in Newry.

An 1874 Centennial Booklet has been donated to the Society by Mrs. Maurice B. Bicknell of Stamford Springs, Conn. The Society is most grateful for these very generous donations.

Citizens of Bethel are reminded of the Bi-Centennial organization meeting tonight (Thursday) at the Moses Mason meeting room at 7:30.

Anyone interested in volunteering as a guide at the Moses Mason House for the summer months, please call 824-2908. It promises to be a most interesting season as the Bi-Centennial era should bring many visitors to the museum.

May 8 was a busy day for Kathy Tyler. In the morning she went to Shelburne N. H. with her mother, Mary Tyler. There she had her picture taken in a dress her mother made. The dress is being sent to State Grange to be judged in the sewing contest.

Then in the afternoon Kathy was honored with a birthday party. She is five years old. Those attending the party were: Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Cole, Mrs. Mildred McLain, Christopher Chapman, Lise McLain and Steve, Jean Corriveau, Janet, Kathy Pike and Scott, Luella Cole, Kelly and Mark.

While the children played outside Mary Tyler prepared a lunch of ice cream and cake. After Kathy opened her gifts and lunch was served the children went outdoors to play. Everyone had a good time.

On Saturday Kathy was again the center of attention. Her father, Wendall Tyler, grandmother, Ivy Tyler and great grandfather, Herbert Brown, visited her and brought a cake and gifts. So everybody had cake and ice cream.

— Evoline Barrett, Corres. —
A beautiful day for Mother's Day.

There was a fire beyond Ichabod Hadley's Friday and the West Paris Fire Department responded. About half an acre burned. Saturday afternoon they were called to the former Appleby farm at the Four Corners for a grass fire. We are lucky to have a fire department so handy and efficient.

The large tree at Gerald Elliott's was cut and 140 rings were counted on the stump.

Thursday when Jim Lee Ring was moving his equipment from Mildred Hazelton's wood lot, he stopped at Elmon Seavey's and swung his trailer around lengthwise. Looks better.

Mildred Hazelton finished work at the Paris Co.

Callers at Barretts were Joe and Laura Kalinowski, Doris Lawrence, Mr. and Mrs. John Estes. The Norman Abbotts, Alice Goff, Mexico, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Slattery came and dug dandelion greens. They are a great tonic and are good eating. Try them.

Doris Lawrence was at Lewiston Friday P. M. Sunday the Norman Abbotts and Alice Goff, Mexico, and the Kalinowskis were callers at the Lawrences.

Herbert Stevens is plowing and seeding the Barrett's front lawn. O'Hearn's six pigs did a lot of rooting last fall.

A 6 a. m. Tuesday we heard the plane spraying the apple orchards as it has to be done while the dew is on.

Several attended Church Sale at the Bank Rooms Tuesday.

Greenwood City

— Mrs. Celista Morgan, Corres. —

For me it has been a week of exploration for I have been out to see Spring. This is the time of year when anyone who will look and listen learns much. Across the pond is Patch Mountain decked in its red buds and evergreens. Patch Mountain is all across the world. I look at the mountains and the ponds and feel the change of another season. And here am I to participate.

We heard the peepers this week. Their bell-toned voices blending into one chorus so clamorous and exultant. Some think, close at hand, it's just a din of sound and do not like it. This month of May has brought warmth, filling the creatures in and around the pond with new energy and exultation. In the waters and marshes, along the shores, woods and fields there lives a varied population of wildlife. The pond itself has a variety of moods. On bright days the water is flat and reflective, on breezy days it chuckles as some secret humor, but on stormy days it pulls a cover over itself, hiding or crying as it moves restlessly.

At Turtle Bridge this week I saw my first turtle but not very large. He didn't wait for me to get acquainted. Beyond on the old road I looked for the blue but it hadn't opened yet. However I did find a bunch of hepaticas that I never knew existed in this area. These fragile looking, enamel like flowers withstand storms and stress far better than other more robust appearing flowers. They are welcomed, not alone for their beauty, but because they are usually the first of all flowers, if we rule out the never-lazy skunk cabbage. Their fuzzy little buds look as though they were still wearing their furs as a protection against the wintry weather which so often stretches late into our spring. The flowers vary in color from lovely blue to pink or white. These that I found were pink and white.

The blood-root, another early "springer," is in full bloom now. One or two sunny days hasten them to maturity, a spotless white beauty, which unless jealously watched may escape us altogether. The red trillium is opening along the roadside. It is another self-assertive flower of the year. It almost flaunts its lurid petals in your face, trying to force upon you the welcome news that spring is here. Pretty, but its odor is most unpleasant. Have you noticed all parts are in threes?

I climbed to the hills one day and looked across the meadows and fields and thought, "How good to see a green world again." Before me, now, was a patch of the softest green moss on granite.

weathered gray, against a background of hemlocks and spruces of their own green, while in the distance the ridges shot up in a sky-shouldering mass, remote and aloof. Buildings crumble, wealth vanishes, but the mountains in their glory forever shall remain.

This day a slow rain, overtook me. I felt its coolness as it touched my face and I carried its cold fingers in my collar back home.

Ruth and I took a short hike to the Nile Brook one afternoon and I looked for Mayflowers. Mine here at home are in blossom and so sweet but we found only one on our walk. By the road the pines marched by, dark and somber just inviting us to explore. But it was wet and muddy so we couldn't go far.

These are only a few of the new things of May which has a full schedule ahead; starting with the early flowers while also caring for the returning birds. May, the month when light lengthens, dusk is violet, night cool and tender, luminous sunrise, peepers with flute-like songs. May, with its magic evokes apple blossoms and trees explode into bloom. Birds shake the leaves with music and there is FEELING in the hillside.

These, too, are only a few of the things I have seen on my explorations while in a quiet thicket in an old fence corner or in fields stretching away to illimitable pleasantness—you do not know, if you do not know—but go and explore and you will find.

ArionsWHAT A WAY TO HOE!

Flower and vegetable gardening can be back-breaking work what with all the spading, cultivating, aerating and composting that's required. On the other hand, it can be a very rewarding and relaxing hobby with the help of an Arions Tiller.

Arions, America's first garden tiller manufacturer, offers three styles of rugged tillers—the gear-drive Jets and Rockets and a brand new chain-drive model. Powered with engines ranging from 3 HP to 7 HP, some models feature two speeds forward and reverse and the popular side-to-side adjustable handlebars to avoid walking in tilled soil.

When you add up all the features of Arions Tillers and compare performances you're bound to say—"What A Way To Hoe!"

On the Job With Emily

Emily's bill exempting Historical Societies from the sales tax was passed by the House 128-7, and will come back in a few days to be enacted. Apparently members of the Taxation Committee were very impressed by the presentation made in favor of the bill by Marius Peladeau of the Maine League of Historical Societies and Stanley Howe of the Moses Mason House Museum, and despite the loss of Revenue to the State, felt that Historical Societies should be given this financial encouragement. The bill concerning the Governor's Committee on the Status of Women which Emily was sponsoring was withdrawn last week. It was felt that, in light of the controversy over Minette Cummings and the PUC, now was not the time to review the status of women in Maine.

The House continues to stand firm on the $2.50 minimum wage, which Emily has supported, while the Senate will go only to $2.30. Last week saw passage of the bill requiring the posting and allowing the advertising of prescription drug prices by both House and Senate. Emily supported this. Edward Kennell and Jeanne Manson of Telstar participated in the House Courier program for two days last week. Emily has continued to make "Beepers" for area radio stations. These are short statements on current legislation which are phoned in to the station, taped, and aired later.

Questionnaire Results: Sixty citizens took the opportunity to respond to the questionnaire which was published in the Citizen and distributed as a flyer in Sumner, Hartford, Roxbury and Byron. While this was in no way a scientific poll conducted under controlled conditions, Emily and the Bethel Democratic Committee felt that such a survey offered citizens an opportunity to communicate with their Representative, and the tabulations do supply a reading of sorts on that elusive quantity, public opinion. Many people did sign their names to the sheets and offered provocative comments on issues not included in the survey. While most replies came from the local area, Pfc. Brian Stowell sent his in from Germany and earns the long-distance citation.

The results:

1. Do you favor abolition of the retail price-fixing powers of the Maine Milk Commission? Yes, 50-83%; No, 5 - 8%; No opinion 5 - 8%.
2. Do you favor "no-fault" automobile insurance? Yes, 49 - 82%; No, 7 - 12%; No opinion, 4 - 6%.
3. Should county government be abolished in favor of state administrative districts? Yes, 20 - 33%; No, 32 - 63%; No opinion, 8 - 13%.
4. Do you favor the reduction of the budget for the University of Maine? Yes, 35-58%; No, 22-37%; No opinion, 3 - 5%.
5. Do you favor attempts to provide railroad passenger service in Maine? Yes, 47 - 78%; No, 8 - 13%; No opinion, 5 - 8%.
6. Do you favor the abolition of Governor's Council? Yes, 39 - 65%; No, 7 - 12%; No opinion, 14 - 23%.
7. Do you favor passage of legislation requiring returnable beverage containers? Yes, 49 - 82%; No, 11 - 18%; No opinion, 0 - 2%.
8. Do you favor reduction of the size of the House of Representatives without cost reduction? Yes, 23 - 38%; No, 24 - 40%; No opinion, 13 - 22%.
9. Do you favor raising the legal drinking age from 18 to 20 years? Yes, 38 - 63%; No, 17-29%; No opinion, 5 - 8%.
10. Do you favor a state attempt to develop a tidal power project in Passamaquoddy Bay? Yes, 39 - 65%; No, 18 - 30%; No opinion, 3 - 5%.
11. If additional taxation becomes necessary, from which source would you prefer the taxes be taken?

The most popular choices were "Alcohol and Tobacco" taxes, and "Corporate Income", with A & T receiving 35 first place votes and CI 25 second place votes.

One letter received described the questionnaire as "one way that an individual can express his opinion simply and with sincerity." Hopefully there will be many more such opportunities, in the meantime continue to let Rep. Saunders know how you stand on issues. As for the survey, we purposely did no interpretation from the results, preferring to let the figures tell the story. However, if any readers would like to express themselves about the results, we may incorporate such material into a future column.

Groan & McGurn, 836-3645, adv.

From Clifford Dawn, Pine River, Minnesota:

I remember Papa's old ox team. Their names were Red and Victor. Dad also had an ox called King, but he was only used as a spare so as to give the others a rest. These oxen were used for all of the farm work. They were driven with a yoke. Thus they were called a yoke of oxen. Sometimes old King would just lay down in the field and Papa would have to wait for the ox to get up. One day Mama took the oxen and we went picking wild blueberries. There are a lot of blueberries here in Minnesota. We were going down the main road and met some tourists who were in cars. They all stopped and started taking pictures. The oxen seemed to enjoy it but Mama didn't. That was about sixty years ago. It was quite a few years later before Papa had a team of horses. Those were the "Good ol' Days." We didn't have much but we had a happy home life.

FRANKLIN GRANGE #124 HELD THREE POINT MEETING MAY 5

Franklin Grange #124 held the first three-point meeting with Round Mountain, Albany, and Bear Mt., South Waterford, Granges Monday night at their hall, May 5. There were 46 in attendance.

The super tables were decorated with cows over a milk pail for individuals and pitchers of milk graced the table with flowers in cow flower pots and other vases. A big cow made by Bernard Brooks was placed on the table with a pail under her which said "drink milk." The cow drew a lot of attention and was the conversation piece for the evening.

Round Mt. Grange filled the chairs with substitutes helping out.

Bear Mt. put on a pleasing play, "Scrambled Eggs" which was well enjoyed.

The next meeting will be May 19 at Round Mt. Grange. Bear Mt. Grange will fill the chairs and Franklin puts on the program.

Sick member Winnie Hanscom was sent a signed card to North Cumberland Hospital, Bridgton.

Thomas Brown is a surgical patient at the Osteopathic Hospital of Maine, Portland.

David R. Keniston of West Milford, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Keniston, Bethel, recently completed the prescribed training in a 7200 hour tool and die apprenticeship, including 800 hours of related study at CMVTI, at the General Electric Plant in Auburn.

GOBAR GAS COMES TO TELSTAR

For years, India has used cow manure to make a cooking gas, methane, called Gobar Gas (Gobar means cow manure). Large chemical plants have been constructed to commercially produce this gas, similar to our bottled gas propane.

As part of the Individualized Chemistry program at Telstar, Sharrold Nuppula and Nancy Melville stand by their Gobar gas generator. Nancy was the gobar collector. The gas will be collected in a deflated tire tube and then used to fuel a bunsen burner or to run a gas engine modified by the Industrial Arts Department. Maybe we have found a solution to the energy crisis.
